Keith Haring loved to work outside on the street, so that everyone could see his art. He put up posters, painted on walls and drew in chalk on pavements and in subway stations. He used his drawings to send positive messages out into the world.

Now it's your turn! Think of a creative drawing with hearts in the style of Keith Haring. Add something extra to the hearts. Roll the dice and use the grid below.

Draw on the pavement or hang them in the window where they can be seen. Hearts and love for everyone!

Keith Haring Wall Mural Pisa © Flickr - Biggs (CC BY 2.0)

Let your imagination run wild!

Write a fun message too!

Press play and watch the video!